

JENKINS ROASTED
FOR THAT ORDER.CONGRESS HEARS A REPORT ON THE CASE.

The Court Grossly Abused Its Power In Attempting to Regulate Such Matters as Were Affected by the Northern Pacific Order—No Impeachment Likely.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Judge Jenkins will not be impeached, but he has no reason to feel happy. The report of the committee that examined his case was submitted to-day. It was a majority report, signed by Chairman Bostmer, of Louisiana, and Congressman Kerry, of Arkansas. They review the circumstances leading up to the injunction forbidding Northern Pacific employees to strike and say: "Your committee has no hesitancy in declaring that the injunction was a gross abuse of the powers of the court. The matter dealt with was beyond the jurisdiction of the judge."

The committee did not support the idea of impeachment, however, believing that the wrong was not intentional.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—By a vote of 37 to 1 the democratic caucus yesterday afternoon passed a resolution agreeing to support the tariff bill of the finance committee, including the compromise amendments, thus shutting off the introduction on the floor of amendments by any senator. This, it is said, insures the passage of the measure. Six senators were absent—Mills, Murphy, Lindsay, Irby, Butler and Gibson. The only person in whose absence there might be any significance are Senators Murphy and Mills. Senator Mills was not at the senate during the day. It is believed that he has some objections to the concessions that have been made, but he has previously announced that he would support any bill that provided for reductions in the present law. Senator Murphy's position has all along been one of doubt, but several democratic senators assert that he will support the bill, and he is counted in the forty-three which are claimed as certain to vote in its favor.

In presenting the resolution and stating the object of the caucus Senator Gorman made a conciliatory speech. He said it was necessary to make concessions in order to secure the united support of the party and he further asserted that it would need a democratic majority to pass the bill. He said concessions had been made on all sides.

Senator McPherson of New Jersey spoke in support of the resolution and dwelt at some length upon the concessions which northern and eastern democrats had been obliged to make and what they had to give up in order to meet the demands of the south and west.

The two principal speeches made during the caucus were those of Senator Jones, explaining the reason for and origin of the compromise and giving some of the details of the amendments, and by Senator Hill on opposition to the bill as it is proposed to amend it. Mr. Jones told why the majority of the democratic senators representing the south and west wanted the income tax and why the minority from the north and east were opposed to it. He also said that the sugar schedule had been changed so as to provide for an ad valorem duty of 40 per cent and an additional duty of one-eighth of a cent on refined sugar, with a penalty of one-tenth of a cent on sugar imported from countries paying a bounty on sugar, the present law, with the bounty to stand until Jan. 1 next.

He said that the ad valorem tax was not materially different from the sugar provision in the pending bill. He said in conclusion that an earnest effort had been made to harmonize all interests, that many concessions had been made to the eastern and northern democrats by changes from ad valorem to specific duties, and that it was hoped that when the new bill should be presented it would command the solid democratic vote in the senate.

Senator Hill in his speech declared that so irreconcilable was his opposition to the income tax he should feel at liberty to offer any amendment he saw proper to any paragraph in the bill so long as the income tax was a part of it, notwithstanding the resolution. He declared that the income tax was not necessary for revenue purposes and he defied any one to show that it was. He repeated what he said in his public speech that no democratic national convention had declared for an income tax. He also called attention to the fact that the demands of the democratic party for free raw material had been ignored and said that wool was required to stand alone out of all the list as representing the fruits of this demand. He charged flatly that the income tax had been retained for the purpose of placating the south and west, and said that because, if for no other reason, New York would have to pay 30 per cent of the tax if imposed he should antagonize the tax to the end.

The roll was called in order to place all on record, and thirty-seven senators voted in favor of the resolution and one senator (Hill) against it. The vote was received with genuine gratification, as many of the senators believed it signified that the tariff bill would pass.

Republicans have not lost heart over the situation, Senator Aldrich has had conferences with the democratic leaders as to the course of the bill when it shall be reported and has told them that when the bill as it is to be amended is reported, he for one, will be willing to come to an understanding as to the time for debate. He has also intimated that if absolute assurance can be given that forty-three democratic votes can be secured for the bill he will probably advise the republicans to refrain from dilatory tactics.

CHINESE TREATY GOES OVER.

Senate Will Consider the Measure Monday—Chandler on Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Although it was evident a quorum was not present when the senate met yesterday no republican made the point and the senate proceeded immediately. After some minor business Mr. Morgan refused to allow morning business to proceed. He moved, in conformity with the special order made ten days ago, that the senate go into executive session to consider the Chinese treaty. The motion was agreed to. The executive session lasted less than half an hour, the treaty going over until Monday. The doors were reopened at 12 o'clock, and on motion of Mr. Harris the tariff bill was taken up immediately.

Mr. Quay, who was entitled to the floor yielded to Chandler, spoke briefly. When Mr. Chandler took his seat Mr. Quay (rep., Pa.) resumed his speech. At 3:30 p. m. he asked the clerk to read a portion of his speech. Mr. Harris raised a point of order against the clerk reading a senator's speech. Mr. Quay said that he was somewhat fatigued. Mr. Harris replied rather sharply that when the senator from Pennsylvania insisted upon working a speech by day and by week he would have to insist that he make it himself. Mr. Quay said he would proceed.

Mr. Mitchell (ore.) suggested the absence of a quorum. The senators came into the chamber and the roll was called. Forty-six senators responded. The senators were getting ready to leave when Mr. Quay moved to go into executive session. Most of them halted at the doors and answered to their names. Mr. Quay's motion was lost, 32 to 12. The hour of 4 o'clock, the hour set for the democratic caucus, having arrived the senate adjourned.

Consider River Improvements.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Representatives Mercer of Nebraska and Hager and Gear of Iowa will offer an amendment to the river and harbor appropriation to set aside the sum of $50,000 for the improvement of the Missouri river at Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Ia. The time of the house yesterday from 12:34 until 4 o'clock was taken up in the consideration of the river and harbor bill. At 4 o'clock Mr. Catchings sought to have general debate close at 5 o'clock. Some opposition was developed among the republicans, when Mr. Catchings moved to close debate in twenty minutes, and on this demanded the previous question, which was ordered, and his motion was agreed to. Discussion was resumed, and Mr. Boatner (dem., Ia.) opposed the method of improving the Red river in Louisiana, according to the present plan. At 5:30 the house adjourned.

Holman's Indian Report.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Representative Holman's report on the Indian appropriation bill brings out a number of interesting features in connection with the Indian service. In 1877 the total cost of caring for the Indians was $4,500,000. In 1883 it passed the $5,000,000 mark for the first time. In 1888 it passed $8,000,000. In 1892 it touched the highest point, $10,000,000. Then it fell back to $7,000,000. The bill reported by Mr. Holman carries $6,550,141, which is less than any appropriation since 1888.

PLANS FOR THE EX-QUEEN.

Royalists of Hawaii Hope to Capture Government.

HONOLULU, April 15, via Port Townsend, per U. S. S. Adams, May 4.—News of the appointment of Admiral Walker to succeed Admiral Irwin and the announcement of the intention of the United States to take possession of Pearl harbor and establish a coaling and naval station, which was received here April 10, followed by the arrival of Admiral Walker two days later, have set the populace talking and many conjectures are being made as to the result of the admiral's appointment and instructions. The royalist papers declare that the admiral comes for the purpose of taking possession of Pearl harbor, and that as soon as it is accomplished he will proceed to organize a new government. They even go so far as to say that Admiral Walker will restore the ex-queen to the throne.

R. W. GOODWILLIE CO.
OF CHICAGO FAILDEPRESSION IN THE PACKING
BOX BUSINESS THE CAUSE

While the Assets Are Twice the Amount of the Liabilities the Democratic Times Prevented the Firm From Meeting Their Obligations When Due.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The R. W. Goodwillie Box company made an assignment in the county court late yesterday afternoon in favor of Orrigen W. Herrick. The concern had a large plant at Main and Hickory streets, in the lumber district, and were reputed to be doing a successful business. Assets were estimated at $150,000 and liabilities at $85,000. The principal creditor was the Brown estate, which held a mortgage on the property for $58,000.

TO ESTABLISH A LEAGUE.

International Bimetallists Favor Plan Offered By M. Thery.

LONDON, May 4.—At to-day's session of the international bimetallic conference at the Mansion House Sir William H. Houldsworth, who was the delegate of Great Britain at the monetary conference at Brussels, read a paper on "The Effects Upon Agriculturalists, Manufacturers, Wage Earners, Merchants, Bankers and Investors of the Fall in the General Level of Prices."

M. Thery, one of the French delegates, warmly urged the establishment of an international bimetallic league. The proposal was cordially supported and it is generally believed that it will be carried into effect.

A pamphlet upon the silver question has just been published by Sir Joseph McKenna, ex-director of the National bank of Ireland. The pamphlet is creating a sensation in financial circles and at the bimetallic conference. It is devoted to proving that Lord Liverpool's legislation of 1816 was simply a fraud, the object being to cheat the public out of 4 shillings in each pound, troy weight, of new coin. It is added that Lord Liverpool made that paltry gain, not for himself, but for the treasury.

Sir Joseph McKenna acquits Lord Liverpool of intentional dishonesty and prefers to attribute the fraud to his stupidity. The silverites claim that when this is understood it will strongly influence public opinion in favor of the re-establishment of bimetallicism.

Message Found in a Bottle.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 4.—H. E. Porter of Salem, while fishing off here yesterday, found a bottle containing the following message: "April 15, 1894—Ship lost on iceberg; no chance of being saved. According to the list of merchant vessels of the United States in the register of 1892, there are seventeen schooners named Dreadnaught.

Lohman, the defaulting ex-cashier of the excise department, recently brought back from Canada, pleaded guilty to-day to the three indictments against him for grand larceny. He will be sentenced on Monday, when he proposes to make some disclosures. The amount of Lohman's defalcation was $19,000.

Do Not Want Carson Mint.

DENVER, Colo., May 4.—The committee on mines and mining of the chamber of commerce has decided that it is unwise to ask for the removal of the mint at Carson City, Nev., to Denver, as to do so would antagonize the Nevada people, and the plant is too small, anyway. Congress will be petitioned, however, to establish a mint in Denver.

Peixoto Wants Peace.

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 4.—The cabinet has been reorganized and Gen. Constatel has been named as minister of agriculture. The national congress convenes to-morrow. In order to avoid a possible civil demonstration in opposition to that proposed by the military companies in honor of President Peixoto on his birthday, April 30, the grand banquet arranged for the occasion was declined by the president.

SHOT 28 RIOTERS
AT SCOTSDALE, PA.DESPERATE BATTLE WITH HUNGARIAN COKERS.

Twenty Deputies Pitted Against Two Hundred Strikers—Superintendent of the Works and Two of His Assistants Fatally Beaten—Women Were in the Lead.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., May 4.—Rioters attacked the workmen at the McClure works this morning, but were repulsed by the deputies who fired on them. Twenty-eight persons were wounded, several fatally.

Supt. White was terribly beaten in the riot and may die.

D. B. Riley and Ed. Roddy, two others of the McClure force, were shockingly beaten and Riley is likely to die.

Two hundred Hungarians composed the mob, women being the most violent members. One of those fatally wounded is a woman.

There were but twenty of the deputies but they were armed with Winchester rifles.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 4.—The coke strikers made an assault on the Fort Hill plant yesterday forcing the workmen to flee for their lives. In the melee a number of the men were badly beaten. The plant is now closed down. The capture of the Morewood dynamiters last night and the attack on Fort Hill have caused the greatest excitement, and the feeling of unrest is more pronounced than at any time since the last strike began. Mobs are marching through the country and raids are feared at several points. The women made an attack on the Davidson works, but left disgusted when they found but one man at work.

St. Louis, Mo., May 4.—Nearly all the coal mines in the St. Louis district are now closed down. The Consolidated company, which has been operating nearly fifty mines, has only six in operation. The Madison company has none at work. The Belleville and Duquoin districts have produced little coal for the last few weeks. Except for the output of a few small mines scattered here and there St. Louis is dependent for her supply upon accumulated stocks.

MACON, Mo., May 4.—During the night 300 striking coal miners started from Bevier for Ardmore, the men at the latter place being still at work. Just out of town the delegation received a reinforcement of fifty from Lingo Camp, all sober, but enthusiastic. The Bevier delegation will meet 500 striking miners from Huntsville, Elliott and Higbee, and the forces will join and enter Ardmore together and endeavor to persuade the men there to throw down their picks. Deputy sheriffs will be on hand to prevent trouble.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 4.—A lodge of the United Mine Workers of America was organized here yesterday with 350 members and other lodges are being organized all over the block coal district. The strikers are firm and say they will not work a moment until there is an adjustment over the entire country if they starve. Every mine in the district is idle, while leadings for coal come from every section of the country.

ALBANY, Iowa, May 4.—The state miners' convention adjourned yesterday at noon. A vote was taken to join the national suspension and strike and the vote resulted in a tie. An adjournment was had until the morning, when after an acrimonious debate another vote was taken and there was a majority in favor of quitting work. The convention then adjourned and the delegates have gone home.

OPERATORS WANT A SETTLEMENT

Coal Troubles May Be Ended By a Compromise—Term Under Discussion.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 4.—Coal mine operators from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania met in Pittsburgh yesterday and decided to take steps to settle the strike. After a conference among themselves they sent for the miners' officials. With the latter they talked the situation over and agreed upon a joint call for an inter-state conference to be held in Cleveland May 15. The joint call was then drawn up by President McBride, in accordance with the wishes of the operators and signed by all present. By the 15th, it was stated, the market will be cleared of coal and it will be a good time to resume work. The conference will be held under the rules of the old inter-state conventions. These give the miners and operators of each district four votes each. The majority of operators favor paying the inter-state rates. The scale runs from 60 and 65 cents in Illinois and Indiana to 75 cents in Pittsburgh. The miners are opposed to any compromise and will not listen to one. If the miners succeed in having the inter-state agreement adopted it will be their greatest victory. It is the first national strike among the miners in over twenty years.

WILL STORM THE MEN AT WORK.

Strikers at Peoria Will Try Moral Suasion on Other Miners.

PEORIA, Ill., May 4.—The mass of striking miners of this county will storm the men who are still at work in this vicinity, and number about a hundred. A big parade has been organized, which will go to each of the four mines still in operation. Two in this county and two in Tazewell. The leaders declare that only moral suasion will be employed and hope to get all the men to go out.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 4.—State Secretary W. A. Guymon of the Illinois United Miners has received the following telegram from State President J. A. Crawford, dated at Staunton: "Belleville, Glenburn and Mount Olive miners, 3,000 strong, are now marching to Staunton. No trouble is expected, and none will be allowed." Coal is scarce here and held for 20 cents a bushel.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 4.—The 325 miners employed by the McLean County Coal company here, the coal company of which Vice-President Stevenson is president, decided to come out and will take out their tools at noon. They have been getting 60 cents a ton, and some of them ask for 77 cents, the same as is paid to miners in the Spring Valley district.

HILLSBORO, Ill., May 4.—The miners in the Hillsboro and Coffeen coal mines went out yesterday.

COLCHESTER, Ill., May 4.—Although 175 miners have come out since Monday it is not on account of wages, but the demand that a new shaft be opened. Other men will not join the strikers. There is no trouble.

DECATUR, Ill., May 4.—The 400 Decatur miners held a meeting last night to confer about quitting work, in compliance with the request of strike officials from Springfield. All the men are ready to quit, and it is expected all will soon be idle and no coal will be shipped from Decatur.

FINN MINERS DISORDERLY.

Mesaba Range Strikers Are Watched by the Soldiers.

DULUTH, Minn., May 4.—Fifteen hundred miners, mostly Finlanders, are out, striking for $1.50 a day. They drove the men out at the Oliver, Norman, Iron King and Mountain Iron mines. Telegrams were received here from Virginia asking for aid at once. Seven hundred miners are congregated in the village and threaten to loot the stores. At one of the mines the magazine was broken open and forty kegs of powder and some dynamite stolen. Trouble is feared if the men get drunk. All are penniless and depend for sustenance on charity and what they can seize. Three hundred miners at the Mountain Iron mines met and voted to a man to go to work but want protection against the mob. Sheriff Sharvy and Adjutant-General Muhlborg of St. Paul went up with sixty men from Company A, Third regiment, at 10:15 by special train. The striking miners were considerably surprised when the troops arrived, but conducted themselves peaceably with the exception of hooting the militiamen as they formed in line up to midnight nothing had been received relative to the shooting at Mountain Iron. It is probable the first reports were exaggerated.

Convicts May Work in Whitwell.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 4.—The strike of 400 miners at Whitwell has greatly increased the interest in the contest between the miners and operators in the Jellico and Coal Creek districts. It is reported to be the intention of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company, which operates the Whitwell mines, to send 200 convicts to the Tracy City mines and to shut down the Inman mines. The miners at Whitwell and Tracy City are disturbed over the reports. There has been some talk among the miners at Rockwood about striking, but it is not known what action they will take.

TO NOMINATE TO-DAY.

State Prohibition Convention Opened at Bloomington, Ill.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 4.—The state prohibition convention met yesterday at 10 o'clock at the Grand opera-house, and will adjourn probably this afternoon, though there may be a night session. There are 725 delegates in the convention. G. W. Gere of Champagne, chairman of the state committee, called the convention to order and made a brief speech. The convention was then temporarily organized with the following officers: Chairman, Hale Johnson of Newton, secretary, A. E. Wilson of Rockford and two assistants. Mr. Johnson made a ringing speech. He declared the two great parties had failed, that their work was done and that the prohibition party must come to the front.

Rev. R. A. Brown of Normal made the address of welcome. W. H. Bolles of Eureka made a rousing speech, in which he said the churches should go into politics and that there were enough votes in the Protestant and Catholic churches of the land to wipe the saloon off the earth if they would stand together.

At night Walter Thomas Mills delivered an address and Rollo Kirk Bryan gave a chalk talk.

New York in Line.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The Swift and Fitzgerald contingent, numbering sixty men of the industrial army, arrived on the steamer C. W. Northane of the New Haven line at Peck's Slip at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The commonwealers tramped to East Tenth street, where they took possession of the quarters allotted them in the people's party headquarters.

NO TRAIN FOR GEN. KELLY.

Gov. Jackson Falls in His Efforts—Unable to Obtain Transportation.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 4.—Gov. Jackson stated at a late hour last night that the negotiations he had been endeavoring to consummate to get trains for Kelly's army had failed. He had tried to make arrangements to have the Iowa Central road land the army on the Mississippi, where some of the packet companies would take them by the river, but he had met with refusal. He did not know exactly what steps he would take next. The demonstration of laboring men who were to march to the Capitol to secure Gov. Jackson's influence to get transportation for Kelly's army started with forty men, headed by Gen. Weaver, Chairman Lowrey, and several local labor leaders. When the procession filed into the governor's reception-room, however, in had been augmented to about 350 persons. Gen. Weaver and others addressed the governor.

Gov. Jackson, in his reply, referred to the events since the army reached Council Bluffs, and read a letter he had written President Cable of the Rock Island railroad requesting that official to furnish a train to Davenport, and requests he had made to all Iowa trunk lines and the refusals from each road to carry the men for less than full fare. Gov. Jackson said he would lay the matter before the executive council of the state and see what could be done. If Kelly would take a route down the river by way of Cincinnati, the governor said he had hopes of getting him out of the state.

Gen. Kelly stated that his army was in Iowa contrary to their wishes, as they begged the Union Pacific to send them to Denver instead of to Omaha. He said they were just as anxious to get out of Iowa as the people were to have them go. A census of the army shows 1,350 men. Gen. Kelly states that he has received official notification that he and his army have been appointed the representatives and authorized to act for the various trades unions of California.

COXEYITES CAPTURE A TRAIN.

They Steal a Northern Pacific Fast Freight and Start East.

TACOMA, Wash., May 4.—Three hundred of the 1,000 industrial encamped at Puyallup marched up the track eastward last evening, congregating near Oring. Early in the evening they seized a fast east-bound Northern Pacific freight train and are now climbing the grade into the Cascades mountains. The balance of the army at Puyallup has been ordered to march on double quick time under "Gen." Cantwell up the track, where an effort will be made to hold the train until they arrive. Marshal Drake has been notified. He will leave at once with a force of deputies in pursuit. Probably the militia will follow.

Coxey Is Hopeful.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—"We are gaining confidence every day," said Coxey, "and our cause is growing." Considerable interest is shown in the case of Coxey, Browne and Jones, who are to be tried in Judge Miller's court to-day. The filing of a charge against Coxey caused some surprise, both to the leaders and their followers, and a disposition is shown in some quarters, so it is said, to withdraw, if possible the charge against Coxey. But Mr. Mulloney, the assistant prosecuting attorney, filed the charge on his own responsibility after hearing the statements of officers in the cases of other leaders, and he intends to have the courts decide whether or not Coxey violated the law.

BURGLARIZED HOUSE AWAITS A FAMILY.

H. L. DAVIS' HOME RANSACKED
IN HIS ABSENCE.

Surprise Will Await Him When He Gets Back From His Visit—Old Photographs Serve as a Milton Basis For a Novel Church Entertainment.

MILTON, May 4.—The house of Mrs. H. L. Davis has been burglarized recently, entrance being effected by removing a light of glass. Mrs. Davis is in California, and it is difficult to ascertain how much was stolen, but a plush cloak and some canned fruit are known to be missing. The Kings Daughters are busy preparing fancy articles of all kinds to be placed upon sale at their annual benefit May 24. The funeral of Mrs. J. W. Vanderwater took place from the house on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. T. Millar officiating. The "photograph" social at the Seventh-Day Baptist church Thursday evening, was a success. There was a bewildering array of ancient "counterfeit presentiments" of people living here, and it was a wise man or woman who could recognize the features, which in by gone days, were those of their near neighbors. W. K. Davis has purchased a new printing outfit in Chicago and expects to begin the publication of a newspaper at an early date. Superintendent Throne was in the village this week. He is a candidate for re-nomination and has many supporters here. The college has been provided with a powerful microscope for class work, the funds being secured by subscriptions. The following was the bill of fare at the M. E. church supper Tuesday: Boiled squeal, frozen beans, parson's victim, cackler's pride, wiggle woggle, liquid real estate, staff of life, fruit of the forest and silver threads among the gold. Station Agent Tompkins' wife has been ill this week but is improving. The Coxeyites so far as learned have no sympathizers here and the movement is heartily condemned by all classes of citizens, without regard to party or sect. Miss Rosa Palmberg, M. D., who was formerly a student in the college, is to go to China as a medical missionary, sent there by the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary society. Emory Burdick, of Janesville, was in the village Wednesday. Mrs. M. E. Burdick is at Lodi visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Stella May, of Fort Atkinson, was a Milton visitor this week. Miss Berta Crouch went to Tiskilwa, Ill., to attend the wedding of her runt, the ceremony taking place Wednesday. Fremont Smith is selling the patent wire fencing in Jefferson county.

BIG STEER RAISED IN FOOTVILLE.
Ira Fisher Has a 2700 Pound Prize Winner—Arbor Day Observances.

FOOTVILLE, May 4.—Ira Fisher boasts of having the largest steer in this vicinity and probably in the west, he having one at his farm that tips the beam at 2700 pounds. It is being raised here and is now six years old and stands seven feet high. The M. E. people have improved the looks of their church lawn by setting out a number of forest trees on Arbor day. The teachers examination here was well attended mostly local teachers being in attendance. George Snyder of Chicago is visiting his mother here. Many friends of Mrs. Dr. Lacy will rejoice to see her out again after her prolonged illness. William R. Styles has taken possession of C. W. Owens store here. Mr. Brown of Magaolia being head clerk. William J. Owen who has been sick all winter is around again and looks as young as he did ten years ago. Harvey Barton is giving his house a coat of fresh paint. Daniel Shaw who has gone to Clark county prospecting, sends back favorable accounts of his visit. Abel Barlow and family are now settled on their farm after sojourning in the city for the past two years. Laura Phillips begins teaching in the Jess Harvey district next Monday. Frank Dann desires to say to all those who do not care to take a long drive to go fishing, that he can supply them with German carp from his fish pond. Sylvanus Wallihan has built a fine picket fence in front of his residence, which was a long felt want, etc. Harry Lee was the guest of St. Curry recently. Mort Darling is the guest of Darius Silverthorn for a few days. The entertainment given by Charles Becker, the musical prodigy, was highly spoken of. C. W. Owen is now out of the mercantile business and intends going to California soon. The Owens have run a general store here for forty years. Thomas Knight has built an annex to his residence much to the improvement of same. Bert Dann is hilarious as he reports the advent of a girl at his home. A. W. Buck carries the prize as being the best bicycle rider in town.

CENTER SOCIAL A SUCCESS.

Grand Attendance at William Dean's—Perley S. Dean Has a Runaway.
The social at William Dean's was attended by many from a distance last Friday evening. Miss Lizzie Harper, of Footville, was the guest of Mrs. Fred Snyder last Sunday. Miss Rena Peter is giving good satisfaction in teaching our school here. Mrs. Campbell, of Evansville, will deliver one of her superior lectures here at the church Sunday. Mary Snyder has returned to Chicago where she will again resume her duties in the dressmaker's shop. Otto Long has improved the looks of his residence by the erection of a windmill. Miss Anna Fisher contemplates starting for Ohio soon. Perley S. Dean had the misfortune to have a runaway last week, while breaking a fractions colt. The horse succeeded in breaking the harness to pieces, but no further damage was done.

LOCAL GRAIN SALES LIBERAL.

Fair Business in the Janesville Market During the Week.

There was a fair business transacted in the grain market during the past week, and with good demand, prices ruled a shade higher for some kinds. Wheat holds steady at 50 to 55 cents; rye 45 to 47 cents; barley is wanted for immediate delivery, and all offerings are quickly taken at 50 to 52 cents, with an occasional sale of fancy at 53 cents. TITCOMB SAYS SHAW SO DO MANY OTHERS

FAMOUS PIANISTS PRAISE THE GAZETTE PRIZE.

Everybody Who Has Examined the Instrument at S. C. Burnham & Co's Says the Things Said in Its Favor Were Justified—Conditions of the Contest.

Everybody in Janesville knows Professor Charles Titcomb. His judgment on pianos would be taken by anybody.

What he thinks of the Shaw, the piano offered by the Gazette, is shown by his choice of that instrument over all other uprights in the market. He uses it in recitals and his preference is admitted by St. Paul musicians to be well founded. Here is one of the letters to the St. Paul agents of the Shaw company:

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 8, 1893. S. W. RAUENBUSH & CO. DEAR SIR:—Owing to the fact that Miss Titcomb refuses to give up her possession of our hall for this evening we have been compelled to postpone the recital till the 31st. I thank you many times for your kindness. Professor Titcomb was completely captivated with the Shaw piano the other evening. Yours truly, W. Allison, Financial Secretary, Y. M. C. A.

That Mr. Titcomb is not alone in his praise of the Shaw is proven by a forty-page pamphlet issued by Raudenbush & Co. and containing the most complimentary letters as to the Shaw's quality. There is no reason to doubt that this instrument ranks in the markets of the country just as Chickering, Steinways and Knabes, the four occupying first place. Everybody who has seen the Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

Friends of contestants show a lively interest in the success of their favorites and votes are coming in rapidly. New subscribers should be reported as fast as secured, but coupons should be tied in bundles of one hundred each and kept until the day the competition closes. RYAN TAKES A FUNNY TACK.

The Arch-Partisan of the State Mouths About Tolerance.

Sam Ryan, of the Appleton Post, on returning from the Grand Army encampment, published a very handsome compliment for Janesville, but exhibited exceedingly bad taste in going out of his way to vent his spleen at one of the officials. Ryan is one of the moss-back and hard-shell variety of democrats who never misses a chance to slap a political opponent, and his plea for non-partisanship is very amusing.

CARKEEK TO BE A LAWYER.

He Says He Is Done With Wrestling and Will Practice in Milwaukee.

Few men of the sporting fraternity are better known in Janesville than Jack Carkeek, the wrestler, and none was more highly thought of than he, for it was generally acknowledged that Jack was a fair man in his profession and his exemplary habits made him a model for aspiring athletes.

He is in Milwaukee with the intention of engaging in the practice of law. Carkeek left the mat three years ago and has since then been on the Pacific coast doing some religious work in connection with the Y. M. C. A. Something more than a year ago he began to study the law with the intention of eventually settling down to its pursuit in Milwaukee and he returns now to arrange for beginning with a local legal firm.

"I would not wrestle another match for the whole of Milwaukee," said Mr. Carkeek. "I decided three years ago that there ought to be something better in life than professional athletics, and I resigned a position which paid $150 a week in order to get away from old associations and take the first step toward a profession which I have always had a fancy for."

"I was actively engaged in auxiliary work with the Y. M. C. A. for quite a while, but was not conducting revivals as was stated from time to time. I have been worried considerably by other wrestlers who have been going around the country using my name. Charles Moth wrestled all through Texas as 'Jack Carkeek,' and Bert Schiller, Schellenberger and others have done the same thing in other parts of the country."

Asked as to his estimate of the comparative merit of the wrestlers now on the mat, Carkeek said:

"Evan Lewis is the champion, and I do not believe there is any man on this earthly footstool who can begin to throw him. The championship was for a long time a question of dispute between him and me, and while I was ready to wrestle him at any time before I retired I must say that I honestly thought him the best man. He is as good now as he ever was and probably better, and is one of the few wrestlers always ready for a square match. When I left the mat it was impossible for me to get a square match, as all the men I offered to meet wanted to 'fake,' which is one of the disgusting things about the business."

GOOD HOUSE FOR MISS HERNDON

Energetic Advertising Netted Her Manager a Handsome Profit Last Evening

Energetic advertising got Agnes Herndon a full house last night. The manager realizing that this had been a poor show town this year spent twenty dollars in extra newspaper space instead of merely sitting down and swearing at his luck. He got his reward in an audience twice as large as he would otherwise have had. The company was not even enough to be wholly satisfactory but Miss Herndon's ability made up for many deficiencies. "La Belle Marie" is a striking play combining love and intrigue, innocence and rascality, fun and humor, pathos and sorrow, courage and virtue. It gave the star ample opportunity and the opportunity was not slighted. Hearty applause indicated that the audience fully appreciated the talent displayed.

Lieutenant Schwatka.

Lieutenant Schwatka, the soldier and explorer, after his return from Alaska, met Colonel Ingersoll on Broadway. At the time the colonel was suffering from a sprain, and explained that he had slipped and fallen on the ice some days before. "Then you must be a good man, colonel," said Schwatka. "Why so, Schwatka?" "Why, the bible says 'the wicked they shall stand in slippery places.'" On another occasion, meeting an army officer, he asked him his station. The officer replied, "San Carlos, Arizona." "Pretty hot place," said Schwatka. "Was stationed there one summer myself, and being afflicted with bad teeth, all the fillings melted."—Argonaut.

'NEATH CHURCH ROOF G.A.R. MEN GATHER.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES OF A NEW ORDER.

Graves to be Decorated as Usual and in the Evening the Address Will be Delivered at the Congregational Church by Rev. E. H. Pence—General Order.

Memorial day exercises in Janesville this year will probably be held under a roof.

Graves will be decorated by the G. A. R. as usual, but it will be simply a silent tribute to the dead. The formal observance of the day will come in the evening when people will gather at the Congregational church and hear a Memorial day address by Rev. E. H. Pence. At least, this is the present understanding although positive arrangements have not been made.

Rev. J. D. Cole will deliver the Memorial Sunday sermon to W. H. Sargent Post, the post attending service in a body at the First M. E. church Sunday morning.

Commander Watrous, of the Wisconsin G. A. R. issued his first general order yesterday from the headquarters just established in the Colby & Abbott building. It formally announces the selection of Samuel H. Tallmadge as assistant adjutant general and urges a general observance of Memorial day. On the latter subject it calls attention to the recommendation of the last state encampment that efforts be made to have all colleges and public and private schools of the state hold memorial ceremonies on the Friday afternoon or evening preceding Memorial day, May 30. It endorses the practice of Grand Army men attending church where memorial sermons are preached and asks veterans to inspire such sermons.

GAZETTE READERS GET ALL THE CREAM

"PICTURESQUE AMERICA ON REMARKABLE TERMS.

Many Janesville People Have Paid
Fifty Cents a Part For William Cullen Bryant's Great Work—They Can Now Get it For Three Coupons and Ten Cents.

"Picturesque America" is known in every home as the magnificent publication sent out with D. Appleton & Co's imprint. It consists of thirty parts each containing a full-page steel engraving and from twelve to twenty other illustrations, engraved in the highest style of art, together with descriptive reading matter contributed by writers specially engaged. The whole edited by William Cullen Bryant, and corrected and revised to date.

A low price was thought impossible because of the immense cost of the work. Co-operation between three of the biggest newspapers in the country has made possible what publishers said was out of the question and has resulted in the offer of the work at a price within the reach of all. The Gazette shares in the benefits of this co-operation and is now prepared to furnish Picturesque America to its readers on the most liberal terms.

As said before this is the most magnificently illustrated work ever produced in this country. It is the grandest literary work ever offered by any newspaper, and we want every reader to take advantage of this opportunity.
Thousands of copies have been sold at fifty cents a part.

Each and every part contains a large full-page steel engraving printed by hand on heavy plate paper and pasted into the part. In addition each part contains from twelve to twenty fine engravings on wood, made by American artists. Remember, there are twenty-four pages in every part.

The illustrations are genuine art gems—not muddy half tones—not photogravures, not lithographs, but most superb creations of American skill that money could procure.

The literary matter has been revised and corrected to date. Much new matter and many new illustrations have been added, bringing this magnificent work up to the year 1894, making it better worth fifty cents a part than ever before.

In spite of all this the Gazette offers its readers the parts for three coupons accompanied by ten cents. Part 1 can now be seen at the counting room on Main street. The coupon appears in another column.

COLLEGE SPORTS.

It is claimed that this season's baseball team of Franklin and Marshall college is the strongest that has ever represented that institution.

W. W. Wilson has been elected captain of the Princeton Freshman team.

The ex-Yale short stop, Murphy, says Carter of Yale has not got into his pitching form as yet, but when he does he will fool the collegiate batsmen. He says that Greenway is catching a splendid game of ball, throwing well to bases, and is a better man all around than Kedzie.

The Columbia college players found considerable fault with the Princeton's method of play. They claimed that the Tigers blocked base runners as if they were playing football and not baseball. Shortstop Brooks was the principal offender, they say.

At Lancaster recently the new baseball grounds of Franklin and Marshall college were opened with a game between the strong Active club and the college team. The latter won by a score of 11 to 3. The grounds are fine. There is a fine grand stand and the grounds are fitted up for all kinds of athletic sports.

The University of Pennsylvania is considered the best batting team of any of the college nines.

Russell, Brown's left-handed twirler, has a style of delivery that closely resembles that of Carter of Yale.

Yale's defeat of Boston was the second defeat Yale has administered to the Boston League club. The other was in 1887, when Stagg and Dann did the honors for Yale. Kelly had then just been purchased by Boston and caught.

FLOWERS OF THOUGHT.

Ostentation is the signal flag of hypocrisy.

The acts of this life are the destiny of the next.

A doubter is always dodging and hiding from the truth.

Cheerfulness is health; its opposite,
melancholy, is disease.

The darker it is all around us, the more our light is needed.

No one can be truly brave who is not trying to be truly good.

Make life a ministry of love and it will always be worth living.

He who reforms himself has done much toward reforming others.

LOOKING TO THE AMERICAN MARKET.

That British manufacturers are expecting to secure a much larger share of the American market than they have enjoyed for many years in the event of the passage of the pending tariff bill there can be no doubt. Representatives of these manufacturers are now in the United States taking orders for goods subject to the enactment of the Wilson bill, and they are offering inducements which enable them to obtain orders. Evidence of this was furnished in the last report of the R. G. Dun mercantile agency, which told of the visit to the agency of a representative of an extensive manufacturing establishment at Manchester, who explained that he was booking orders for dress goods and other woolsens, subject to the passage of the tariff bill, at a very much reduced figure from the prices prevailing now. This gentleman said that prices are now very low in England in his line and trade is dull, but he thought the effect of the enactment of the new tariff as proposed would be to greatly stimulate production at all the British factories and in a few months the demand from America would overtax the looms and spindles of Great Britain. He anticipated that within a year prices there will be fully as high as they now are on this side of the ocean. "If his conclusions are correct," said the report of the mercantile agency, "it is easy to explain the glee with which he looks forward to the next season's American trade."

TRY SOAP AND WORK

There is no easier way of scattering the "armies of the unemployed" than to offer them work. It is something the Coxeyites dread worse than soap and water. A dose of physical labor administered to two or three of these gangs in the towns which they pass through would immediately disperse all the "brigades" and "regiments" that are "marching" on to Washington.

Vice President Stevenson believes in free-trade, just as firmly as ever, but the 325 employees in his Illinois coal mine are wavering. They voted the democratic ticket as their employer suggested, expecting to see better times, but their wages have been lowered instead of raised. They are now on a strike against democratic pay and democratic policy.

If insurance inspectors were a little more particular in compelling property owners to remove causes of fire in their buildings, there would be fewer disastrous conflagrations. It might be well for the city authorities to adopt regulations dealing with this carelessness.

The Cleveland panic is now nearly a year old, but November of next year will end it. That is the day on which the republicans will sweep the country in the congressional elections, and lay the foundation for a still greater victory in 1896.

A Kansas man wants a verdict for damages because he has been persistently and publicly called Breckinridge by the defendant of his suit. Soon no one will dare to name even his dog after the notorious Kentucky congressman.

An increase in the public obligations has become a regular feature of the monthly debt statements recently. Democratic government comes high, but many people wanted it two or three years ago.

It isn't hard to define Coxeyism. Coxeyism is one of the natural results of fourteen months of democratic administration.

It's a long time since the hungry Wisconsin democrats had their last installment of federal patronage.

WHAT GOV. PECK WOULD DO

Himself Would be His Second Choice For the Gubernatorial Nomination

"Gov. Peck was in the city today," says The Milwaukee Journal. "When asked by a Journal reporter concerning the story published in a Chicago morning paper that he had announced himself as a candidate for re-election, the governor said:

"The statement is absolutely untrue. I have not announced myself as a candidate, and I will not. In fact I have made no plans for the future. I never lifted my finger to get the nomination for governor and never shall do so.

"I would work harder for any other democrat who may be nominated than were I the candidate. As for myself, I am content if I have given the people of Wisconsin a reasonably good administration."

DODGED DOCTORS UNTIL 65.

C. G. Antisdal Laughed at Physicians For Three Score Years.

A man who never had a doctor until he was sixty-five years old, is C. G. Antisdal, the well known town of Rock farmer.

"I wouldn't have needed a doctor then if they hadn't turned a new disease loose on me," said Mr. Antisdal. I could get along with anything else, but when grip got hold of me I had to throw up my hands."

Mr. Antisdal was sixty-five years old May 2. People who don't know his age would think forty-five was a very liberal figure, for the hearty pioneer has less gray in his hair than many people of forty.

The court fined her $5.00 and costs.

ALONE AMID FLAMES WAS MRS. SELLECK.

BRAVE FIGHT MADE BY AN OLD LADY.

At 2 A. M. She Awoke to Find Her Home in Flames—She Gave Battle and Did Much to Subdue the Fire Before the Neighbors Reached the Spot.

Alone in the house and with her hands and face burned to a blister, Mrs. Selleck, the sixty-year-old mother of J. O. Selleck, engineer on the Chicago & Northwestern railway, fought the flames that were destroying the home of her son at 2 o'clock this morning.

The house is the fourth building east of the school for the blind on the opposite side of the road.

It was 2 o'clock this morning when the stifling smoke aroused Mrs. Selleck from sleep. She had been in such a plight before and realized at once that the house was on fire. Running to the basement kitchen she found the woodwork in flames. Her next door neighbor heard her cries and hurried to her assistance, but she was already at work. With the scanty supply of water from cisterns, the fire was finally extinguished.

Mrs. Selleck badly burned. Mrs. Selleck was clad only in her night clothes and suffered serious burns. Her hands were hurt most but her face was covered with blisters when medical help arrived. So hot was the fire that windows fifteen feet away from the burned wood work were all burned out.

An inspection of the damaged building showed that the fire originated in a closet in the basement, communicating to the kitchen and stairs leading to the upper part of the house. Considerable clothing was destroyed and the basement was considerably damaged by fire while the whole house was damaged by the dense smoke. The loss is covered by insurance in Silas Hayner's agency.

Has Put Out Three Fires. "This is the third time I have saved a house from burning," said old Mrs. Selleck to a Gazette reporter as she nursed her smarting hands and face; "and I think I have played fireman long enough to be placed on the retired list."

A few years ago Mrs. Selleck nearly lost her life in a burning building.

Fire alarm box 555, located at the School for the Blind, was not "pulled," although there was occasion for it. The members of the fire department were a little surprised when they learned of the fire, and that they had escaped a two mile run with the fire steamer. Mrs. Selleck did not know of the alarm box at the School for the Blind, or the alarm would have been sent in.

SPEAKING TUBE PHONES FOR RENT.

Janesville Telephone Exchange Will Soon Introduce These Handy Instruments.

Manager Willitz, of the telephone exchange will soon canvass the city with a view of placing "speaking tube" instruments in factories, residences, and business houses. The instruments consist of magneto telephone and battery transmitters for use in offices and factories or for social line purposes. These instruments are very attractive in appearance and can be attached to the wall or to a light nickel plated stand and if it is desired to use them on an office desk. In large offices and business establishments, the different departments are necessarily at some distance from each other and some ready and satisfactory system which will enable the heads of these departments to communicate with one another or with their chief at any moment becomes of the highest importance.

NEW SALUTE CAUSED A FIGHT.

Young Man Comes to Grief Through Following the Eastern Mode.

Blood will flow if the latest fashion in uncovering the masculine head becomes general. It consists in lifting the hat from the head and then suddenly thrusting it straight out before you at arm's length. Down east no other style is recognized as good form, but it is difficult and dangerous as well. A Janesville young man tried it on Milwaukee street this morning and had to run for his life. The salute has to be given with such a jerk to be effective that one stands a good chance of giving the person in front of him a notion that he has been sand-bagged, and it is difficult to explain away an impression like that.

JUDGE E. L. SPENCE, editor of the Milton Telephone, has taken to the lecture platform at the solicitation of many friends. His course consists of three addresses—"Idioms and Slang," "The Keeley Cure for Inebriety," "Why Am I a Congregationalist."

CLASS legislation is at a high tide in Kansas. The new election law there says: "The lower limbs of the voter as high up as the knees shall be visible from the outside, while the voter is preparing his ticket, the lower part of the booth having been left open for that purpose." This is a direct challenge to Jerry Simpson and Mary Ellen Lease.

DR. RALPH H. BALL IN THE THROAT RUINED HIS VOICE.

LETTER CARRIER CLIFFORD
CAN NEVER SING.

He Doesn't Believe Olmstead Was Insane But is Afraid the Would-Be Murderer Will Be Able to Escape Going to the Penitentiary By That Plea.

"Was Olmstead insane when he shot you?" a Gazette reporter asked William Clifford, the Chicago mail carrier who is in the city waiting for a couple of bullet holes to heal.

"From all I have seen of him I should say not," responded Clifford, who is a slender, clean-cut young fellow, about the average height, and with blonde hair and moustache.

"Even when very angry he never showed signs of mental unsoundness. I suppose that will be his defense, though, and the fact that he was in an insane asylum once will back it up. I wish he never had been in an asylum. Then there would be a fair chance of sending him over the road," and the young man felt of the bandage about his throat tenderly.

"Will you suffer any permanent injury from the shots?"

"The only thing will be that I may lose my voice. The doctors tell me the bullet cut some of the muscles controlling the larynx. I am not likely to sing in the choir again, but I will be in shape to deliver mail again in about two weeks."

Flying Switches the Cause of D. W. Ryan's Suit Against a Railroad.

Depositions heard before H. S. Sloan show a peculiar state of affairs in the Chicago Belle case. Belle is the trotter that was injured while being transferred from Janesville to Jersey City last summer. D. W. Ryan, her owner, now sues the Chicago & Alton road. Archibald McBride and Lendall Witham, who are training the mare on the Janesville track this spring, were the men examined before Justice Sloan. They were in the car on the trip east last summer and said the trainmen repeatedly made "flying switches." The cars were then thrown together with a crash and the mare was dashed against the end and disabled. Owner Ryan wants the road to pay him $2,000.

CANNOT GET POLES FOR THE ARC LIGHTS

CAPTAIN NORCROSS DELAYED
BY THE STRIKES.

His Men Finished Their Work in the Fourth Ward and Then Had to Stop For Lack of Material—Line Will Be Ready on Schedule Time it is Thought.

Captain Norcross finds much difficulty in procuring poles for the construction of the new electric light circuit in this city.

"The trouble up in the northern part of the state has tied everything up, and it is impossible to get poles shipped as wanted," said Captain Norcross this morning. "My men have been idle all this week for want of poles. We have set poles in the Fourth ward, and a few in other places on the west side, but are now at a stand still, but I don't know when the poles will arrive."

The captain is confident, however, that his lines will be completed and everything will be in readiness on schedule time.

HERE'S A QUESTION.

For Peace of Mind, Ought You to Give Money to a Beggar?

"I have always agreed," said the rounder, "with the theory that indiscriminate charity is unwise, and results in creating paupers, but one night I had a chance of viewing it from a new standpoint, and I must say that I am less positive now."

"I had been dining with some acquaintances, and we had lingered longer than usual because it was nasty outside. We had had an excellent dinner, and as fine a lot of burgundy as I had tasted in many a day. The check was a pretty big one, and we were puffing on some big, fat, black cigars when we turned out onto Broadway."

"I said it was a bad night, but that does not begin to describe it. It was a regular blizzard, snowing and raining at the same time, and coming from every direction at once. Umbrellas were of no use in such a wind, so we did not put them up, but just turned up our overcoat collars and drew in our heads, leaving only our faces and our big cigars exposed. We would have taken a cab, but we felt so warm from the effects of the dinner and wine that we did not mind the storm a bit, and voted that it would be just jolly to walk up to the club."

"So we turned down Twenty-sixth street to Fifth avenue and sauntered along. Between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth street we came upon one of the most miserable wretches imaginable. He was still young, but his body and face were bloated from drink. His cheeks were so swollen that his eyes were barely visible and his nose was shapeless. His wisp of a mustache looked more like a strand of rope than human hair. He had on a battered Derby hat that was too small for him, a thin, tight cutaway coat that did not conceal the absence of a shirt, short ragged trousers and torn shoes. He had no gloves. It was plain that he was a tramp of the worst sort, and even in that storm his breath was redolent of stale beer and bad whisky when he accosted us."

"Mindful of my principles, I waved him aside, although I must own I felt sorry for the poor devil, homeless on such a night. Two of my companions made a detour to avoid him, but the third slipped a half-dollar into his hand. I felt annoyed at his doing that, and as we passed on I said to him:

"Say, old man, you ought not to do that. Don't you know you're encouraging a tramp and professional beggar, and thus aiding to make pauperism less disagreeable? He will tell others and inspire them to rely on charity, too."

"My friend who is a thoughtful man, puffed vigorously for a few moments and then gave me this stammer:

"Jack," he said, "what you say may be true, but the fact is that I gave that fellow a coin from a purely selfish motive. This has been a perfect night for me so far. The duck was done just enough, the wine was fit for a king, the salad was not to be criticised, and even this storm cannot spoil the flavor of my cigar. This walk is bracing, my blood is warm, and my spirits are bounding. When I get to the club and remove my coat and rubbers, and sit down before the open fire with a glass of grog at my elbow, I shall be in the most enviable humor. But it would not be so if I had passed that wretch unnoticed. His face would have haunted me. I would have felt that he was still out in the cold, wet and miserable, and, while I have no excuse for him, the picture would have been unpleasant and would have disturbed me. He may drink himself to death on what I gave him, but what's the odds? He can't be any worse off, and I am certainly more at ease."

"It occurred to me then that I would have been carrying that fellow in my mind, too, and that he vaguely obtruded himself, even at the club, and marred my enjoyment of the warmth and comfort there. I am not prepared to say that my friend was right, but I am in doubt."

The Era of Muscle.

This is an athletic age. Everybody wants to be strong. The craze—for it has well nigh reached that stage—effects both sexes and even childhood. The pugilistic phase of this mad in young America is by no means morally promising. But this is nothing to be endued with vigor and another to be endowed with muscle. Super-muscularity is often induced by physical effort perfunctory to health and calculated to shorten life. The vigor which means a regular and efficient discharge of the physical functions, is the first medium at which all may safely aim without causing ruptures or breaking blood vessels. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is largely conducive to a gain in vigor of this sort since it stimulates and assists digestion, promotes regular bilious secretion and keeps the bowels in order. Sleep, that grand recuperator of nervous vigor, is encouraged by it and it remedies malarial, rheumatic and kidney trouble.

Special Tax Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the warrant for the collection of the special assessment for extending Main street in the Third ward in the city of Janesville is now in my hands for collection and that I will receive the same at my office until the 12th day of May, 1894, after which I shall proceed to collect the same as the law directs.

To Miss Polly Harvey.

I know my cast, Miss Harvey, though
A dozen times I've seen and read it—
(I think—I don't mind telling you—
It did its clever author credit.)
And knowing this, of course I know
How Polly Eccles should be rendered,
Wherefore for your delightful show
My thanks and praise are hereby tendered.

'Twere nothing short of flabby folly
To speak a word against your Polly.
Tom Robertson, there's little doubt,
Intended Polly to be merry.
A Polly, gayety without,
I difficult to picture, very.
I'm sure he meant her to be bright.
Or else I marvel why he made her.
Be sure, then, you have acted right,
Miss H., in having brightly played her.
I thank you for a bright, a jolly,
A sweet, large-hearted, pretty Polly.

The Human Electrical Forces!

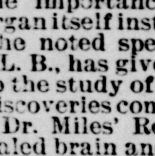

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

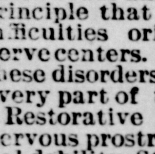

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., L. L. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Are Buying Pianos Like the Gazette's.

Two wealthy Janesville men who intended to buy pianos made by a noted Boston factory had their attention called to the Shaw by the announcement of The Gazette's offer. After careful examination of the instruments at Burnham & Co.'s they have decided in favor of a Shaw.

That Tells What Sort of Instrument We Offer.

The Shaw is undoubtedly the finest piano made today in America, and is so considered by other piano manufacturers, piano tuners, piano teachers and the musically informed. The young lady who wins The Gazette prize will have a piano to be proud of.

Here are testimonials from piano tuner, teacher of the voice, and oratorio singer. Others will follow:

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 1, 1892.—GENTLEMEN—As compared with other first-class instruments, the Shaw piano has the charming characteristics of each—all in one. Not a break in the scale. No rattling of the action. Never harsh nor metallic in tone. Stays in tune. Such is my admiration for this piano that I would not trade, "even up" for any upright made. My own Shaw has not required any attention during the past year and is in almost perfect tune now.
Yours respectfully,
FRED. LEAVITT.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 2, 1892.—GENTLEMEN—I am extremely pleased with the Shaw Piano which I purchased of you. I have used it for some months and consider it a superior instrument. Its clear full tone and elastic touch is a delight not only to myself, but to my many musical friends, its sweet singing quality being especially noticeable, and I shall be pleased to recommend it to my pupils, etc. I am
Yours respectfully,
OSCAR L. LIENAU.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 19, 1892.—GENTLEMEN—The Shaw Piano is a source of great pleasure to me. If I were not captivated by the noble quality of its tone as a solo instrument, I certainly should as a perfect instrument for vocal accompaniment. Its particularly fine sympathetic singing quality, and the absence of all hardness of tone, give peculiar pleasure to the singer—the song and the accompaniment blending most admirably. It is a source of inspiration.
Yours faithfully, CHARLES DELACY.

HATS THAT ARE POEMS.

New Things in Millinery That Will Please Every Maid's Fancy.

So many pretty things in millinery are shown by the dealers that it is difficult for the purchaser to make a choice. Straws of all colors, both fine and coarse, chip, neapolitan braid, lace and jetted wire are all worn. It seems as if every material that was ever used for hats and bonnets is in vogue this season. Buckles, feathers, flowers, ribbon, velvet, spangles, large pins, beads and all kinds of ornaments are employed for trimming, and every individual ought to be able to find something to please her fancy.

Large imported hats of white lace are displayed shirred on wires, with a deep flounce or valance of lace hanging down all around the brim. White neapolitan flats, looking like frostwork, are caught up fancifully and adorned with lace and white ostrich tips. There is rather a tendency to trim small round hats with a rosette or bunch of flowers on each side, accurately balanced, but the style is not a becoming one and is too suggestive of a side wheel steamboat to be attractive to anybody except the persons who would wear a tin pan for a bonnet if that headgear happened to be announced as the fashion. A pretty hat seen the other day was of fancy straw, in the natural color, profusely trimmed with daisies, cornflowers and poppies, among which were placed small sprays of yellowish lilies of the valley. A bit of cream lace and a gold ornament completed the decoration. When flowers are used, a spray is usually allowed to rest upon the hair. It may be placed at the back, front or side, whichever suits best the shape of the hat and the face. Green being a popular color this year, a quantity of foliage and seed heads are employed for trimming, and artificial oats made of feathers are a novelty.

The hat of which an illustration is given is of very coarse straw. It has a black crown, but the brim, except the outer edge, is gold colored. It is plainly faced with black guipure, bordered with a band of gold spangled galloon. The brim is bent becomingly and caught up on the left side by a rosette of black moire ribbon, which touches the hair. The trimming consists of a bow of black moire ribbon fastened by a large gold buckle and black jetted Prince of Wales tips.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE TAILOR MADE GIRL.

Does She Dress With an Eye to Pleasing the Men Alone?

It has been asserted many times that women dress with an eye to pleasing men only. That is a belief very flattering to men, and they naturally adopt it with enthusiasm and cling to it with tenacity. It is noticeable, however, in this connection, that women dress quite as carefully when they are going to attend a meeting of a woman's club as they do when they expect to be subjected to masculine scrutiny, and that in an art students' sketch class made up entirely of women quite as much pains is taken by the amateur model to secure a becoming costume and a pretty pose as when the class is a mixed one. Women undoubtedly like the admiration of men, but they like the admiration of other women also. A compliment from one woman to another is far more likely to be sincere than a compliment from a man to a woman, especially as a certain sort of man considers it incumbent upon him to interlard his remarks to women with flattering sentences, regardless of truth or even probable fiction.

Somebody announces every now and then that men do not like masculine looking garments on women; that starched shirt-bosoms and cuffs, stiff hats and man-like coats are their abomination, and that they wish women to be in everything the opposite of themselves. Nevertheless tailor made fashions have practically no rivals in the average man's esteem if his comments are to be taken as an indication of his taste. The plainer the skirt, the tighter the stitched bodice, the higher the starched collar, the natter the four-hand scarf and the doggie the dogskin gloves the more approval do they win. Apparently a man likes to be beaten on his own ground when it is a question of dress.

Speaking of tailor made costumes, several new and attractive French models are seen. Parisians avoid the strict severity of English tailor fashions and infect their designs with a taint of frivolity. The sketch shown is of a costume of thin covert cloth. It has a draped skirt finished with stitching. The corsage, which is gathered in beneath a corselet, is also stitched and buttons in an odd way, back and front, over a fitted bodice. Buttons also decorate the upper part of the skirt. The sleeves have a long tight cuff and a double puff held in with a band.

The Lawn Mower.
Go get the old lawn mower out,
And polish off the rust;
Put oil in all the little holes,
And clean out all the dust
Do all you can to soften down
That irritating click,
And sharpen up the cutting knives—
You'll need it pretty quick.

The emerald whiskers on your lawn
Will soon be getting long,
The exercise of trimming them
Will make your muscles strong.
So get the old lawn mower out—
But make this little men:
Don't ever try to cut your grass
Till after 2 p. m.
